

THE EXAMINATION OF THE ACCIDENTS BY QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS,

Wherein the accidents of the eight
parts of speech are familiarly handled
and all difficulties in the same arising explained.

Whereby young scholars may in shorter time learne to vnderstand, and maisters with more ease, and better successe teach the principles of the Accidence, then it usually happeneth.

Set forth by T. C.

Scientia non habet inimicum præter ignorantem.

LONDON

Imprinted by Iohn Norton, Printer to the Kings
Majestie in Latine, Greeke, and Hebrue.

1606.